Today Decides Tomorrow in School Life

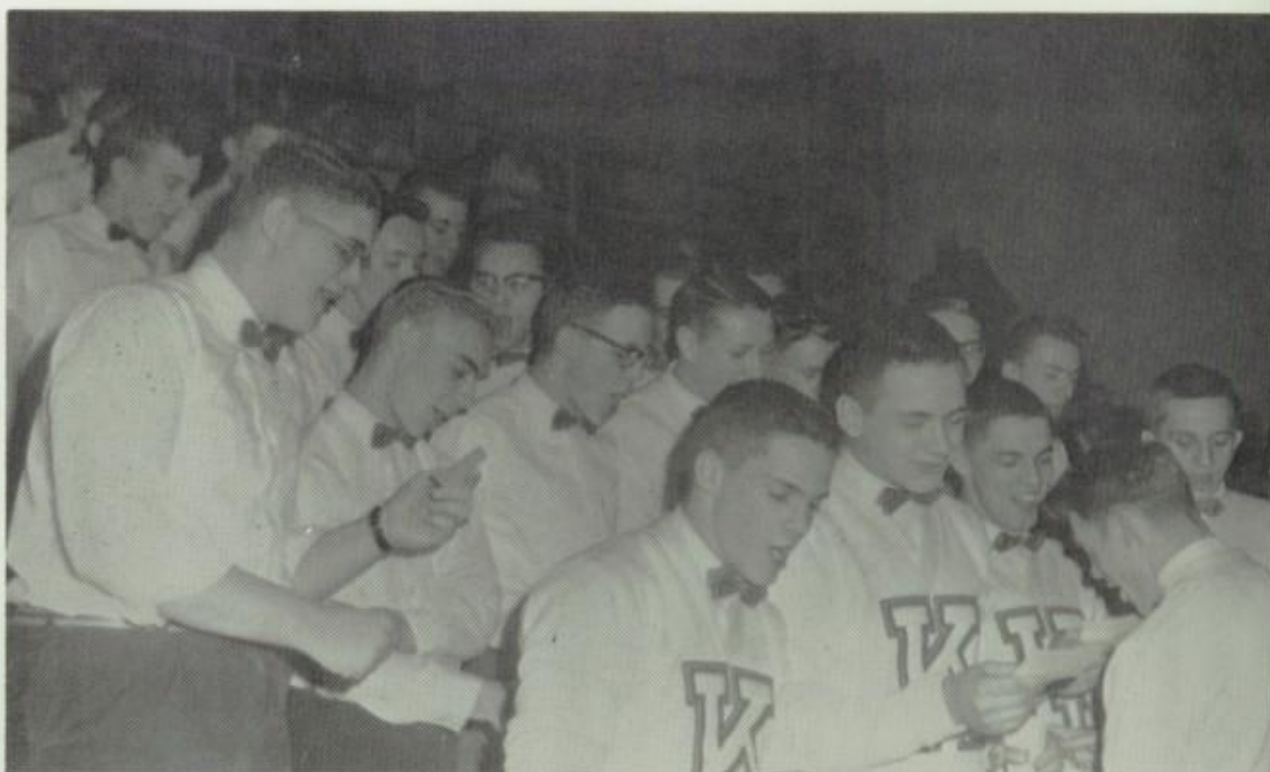

"What we are to be, we are now becoming" through the activities of each day at Knox High School. Of course our academic studies get top priority; but we also grow and develop through participation in school events, clubs, and sports. These broaden our friendships, teach us teamwork, and help us get along with our fellow men. "Today decides tomorrow" at Knox.

WE BACK OUR ATHLETIC

Mr. Snelling gives a short speech at a pep rally.

The boys' cheerblock, organized the latter part of this year, need help badly.

Brisk winds during evenings of football games do not discourage the students from coming.

Checking hats and coats during basketball games is one of the many services that students provide.

TEAMS IN VARIOUS WAYS

The cheerblock is an important part of boosting a team's morale.

Necks crane as the players' eyes follow the ball.

Students are especially busy at the concession stand during intermission.

ENTHUSIASM RUNS HIGH

For the 1962 Homecoming, excitement began to mount as the pre-game festivities began. School spirit grew as signs and posters appeared in support of the team. The first big rally was the annual snake dance and bonfire the night before the game. The dance was led down Main Street by the new fire engine, while the cheerleaders led yells for the spirited student body. At the bonfire there were speeches and yells.

Fair weather provided a perfect day for the parade downtown, composed of the band, twirlers, floats, queen candidates, cheerleaders, the Redskin team, and the student body. Talks were given by Coach Snelling and the two co-captains, Bill Stuteville and Paul Berning. Terry Golding as the master of ceremonies introduced the queen candidates.

At the half-time of the game that night, the queen was crowned by the former queen, Linda Clarke. As the candidates stood on the field, the excitement reached its peak when Linda placed the crown on Pat Christian's head.

Climaxing a week of work and expectation was the team's victory over the Jimtown Jimmies, 24-6. This final score marked the end of a successful 1962 Homecoming.

Bill lights the bonfire which roars skyward as the rally begins.

DURING HOMECOMING

Queen candidates relax before Homecoming ceremonies.

The queen, Pat Christian, smiles happily after winning the crown.

The Senior float won first prize.

BY ATTENDING SOCIAL EVENTS

At the football banquet Mr. Snelling congratulates Bill S. and Paul B. for being the Most Valuable Players.

Julie P. gets carried away and stamps Barbara C. on the head instead of the hand.

Rev. Burroughs gives a speech at the F.H.A. banquet.

Hester Bickel, secretary to Mr. Hamblin; Jerry Marshall, secretary to the School Board; Jane Olson, secretary to Mr. Harbison; Bonnie Taylor, secretary to Mr. Larimore.

A sincere desire to become an accredited school was brought to a realization on March 24, 1962, when Knox High School was admitted to the North Central Association.

Prior to acceptance, the educational adequacy of our high school was evaluated by eleven dedicated school men from other Indiana North Central Schools and colleges.

The team work of the school board, administration, and faculty, as well as the organizations and individuals of our "school-minded" community, made the step possible.

The hard work of those involved, pointed to a positive, constructive, forward-looking educational program. The North Central Association believes in "quality education for all."

Success in any field is based on full comprehension of the English language. Advanced specialized classes such as English IV and speech prepare us for college work, public speaking, and writing. To further the knowledge of language, Knox offers two other languages, Latin and French. Two years of study in each course are available. Since many English words are derived from Latin, this course will help to widen a student's vocabulary. French is also valuable in that one will learn the customs and be able to understand the French-speaking people. High school instruction gives students who are interested in the professions concerned with Languages a good background for advanced training.

Rapid calculation, stocks and bonds, income tax reports, radicals, square roots, and tangents have special meaning to math students this year. Those students planning to go to college struggled diligently through algebra, geometry, and trigonometry; and other students took general math.

During the year the juniors and seniors turned their attention to chemistry and physics. They tested theories by experiments and observations. The sophomores showed their interests in planning their science projects and some contributed to the Science Fair. The interest shown was a clear indication that students realized the importance of science in daily living.

When one hears the term "Social Studies" at K.H.S., it can mean several different courses. An elective of the sophomore year is the course of world history, which covers prehistoric times up to our modern-day civilization. The requirement in the junior year is United States history, which begins from the time before this nation was discovered to the present time. Government and economics are required in the senior year. In these, one studies the present government of the United States. K.H.S. offers seniors the elective course of psychology and family living. This subject involves the study of personality and the ability of getting along with others.

The business education department in Knox High is equipped to handle many different types of business career-minded students. Commercial education is the best curriculum for any student who plans on entering any business field.

A K.H.S. student interested in becoming a secretary has a choice of courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and secretarial training. Other elective courses are general business, economic geography, and business law. All of these courses give us practical experience, too, as in planning a family budget later in life, skill in typing both personal and business letters, and knowledge in tax forms, insurance, and other things in life.

Home Economics

In our modern age it is important that every person should learn to do things which will be useful in everyday living such as cooking, sewing, or fixing something around the home. The vocational studies at Knox High School give students a chance to develop these practical skills.

Vocational studies teach students skills that will be of great help in their future lives. Appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking is acquired by students in the home economics classes. Students learn to combine manual skills with brain power in the industrial arts classes as they work on various projects which give them first-hand experience in this field. Agriculture students learn details about farming and livestock raising. The agriculture workshop also gives them an opportunity to work on machinery, learn welding, and gain other knowledge which will be helpful to future farmers.

Each year the art and music departments of the Knox schools have widened their area of teaching so they could broaden the knowledge of their students. Art has become a popular class in which the students attempt to further their abilities in this field. They participated in modeling clay, drawing, and painting.

This year the chorus sold candy to raise funds for new robes. They entertained the students with concerts and were spotlighted in many of our lyceum programs. The marching band took on a new look during the football season by acquiring a high-stepping drum major and six flagbearers. They, too, entertained us with concerts and traveled to other cities in competition.

STUDENTS SEEK GUIDANCE HELP

During their high school years there have been many times when the students of Knox High School have needed help and guidance. Whenever they have needed advice, Mr. Bivens could always be counted on to give wise counsel.

The purpose of the guidance department is to assist in any way possible the students of Knox High with respect to their personal, educational, and vocational problems.

Through the testing program he attempts to learn as much about the individual as possible; so each student can gain insight into his aptitudes. Selecting a lifetime vocation is extremely important, and to make the best selection requires knowledge of the individual and to the job itself.

To educate students the best way possible we each must be considered as an individual. With the assistance of the students, teachers, and parents; plus the information gained through counseling the school hopes to gain each student personalized assistance in the areas mentioned.

Today Decides Tomorrow in Activities

The organizations to which we belong are beneficial in that they provide a manner of furthering our interests in certain fields including music, journalism, farming, teaching, and many others. These extracurricular activities make school more enjoyable for us whether we are participants or students being entertained by some type of program. One of the most important traits of character is learned by joining these various organizations—that of being able to cooperate with others. This in itself will be of great advantage to us in becoming good, substantial citizens.

FRIENDLINESS MADE TOM A POPULAR LEADER

THOMAS MULLIGAN

Tom Mulligan was chosen by the students of Knox High to hold the office of President of the Student Body.

Reading the daily announcements, presiding over many lyceum programs, and conducting the Student Council meetings were a few of the many duties Tom performed.

Tom was active in several extracurricular activities. He was a Boys' State Representative of his class. He played football for four years and in 1962 won an N.S.C. Honorable Mention.

Tom's pleasant disposition and cheerfulness set an example for other students to follow.

The Knox High School Chorus, consisting of fifty-eight members, worked hard and improved greatly under the direction of Mr. Parshall.

The chorus performed before large and appreciative audiences at the Christmas program and the Spring Concert and performed for various organizations in the community.

The chorus has a fine group of thirteen people who have yet to find a name, but are very talented. They were hand picked and appeared on numerous programs. They sing Madrigal music as well as popular, without the assistance of a conductor.

After working hard selling candy, the chorus attained enough money to buy new robes. The robes are red with gold and white stoles.

Mr. Parshall is to be congratulated on the fine appearance and performance of the chorus.

THE KNOX BAND PERFORMED

THE MARCHING BAND

The Knox High School marching band played for all home football games and gave many interesting between-halves shows. The band also added much pep and enthusiasm by their playing at all the basketball games.

The concert band gave two fine concerts on January twentieth and March twenty-ninth. The latter marked the fourteenth year that the band has had a spring concert.

On April twentieth the Knox High School Band entered the concert band contest at Crown Point. This event is always the high-light of the year.

Several new instruments were purchased by the band this year. The new instruments purchased were two bassoons, one bass clarinet, one French horn, and one English horn.

The Smoke Signals, the school newspaper at Knox High School, was issued monthly. It was under the direction of Gay Chamness, editor-in-chief, and Miss Peak, advisor. Through the newspaper, the students and faculty got a first-hand account of school activities and events and also the opinion of students on various items. The staff, whose job was collecting the news and writing it, worked hard to meet the deadlines.

KNOWLEDGE AND LITERARY APPRECIATION

HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARIANS

This year there were fifty-two student librarians and thirty-three student projectionists in both the junior and senior high schools. They are under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Curnutt. Student librarian's duties are becoming more numerous and varied as more and better facilities are being added.

New additions to the library have been the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature, which students are finding quite helpful in preparing reports, and a new projector which had been added to the Audio-Visual aids. Many new books are frequently being added. The new books are to help students in their studies and for their own personal enjoyment.

The members of the Shakespearean Club are those students who are in Speech Class, taught by Mrs. Buss. The purpose of this club is to give students a chance to perform before an audience in a variety of ways; such as informative speeches, humorous and serious readings, skits, and short plays.

The members had time for fun, too, and several parties were held during the school year.

STUDENTS TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES WELL

Please! Lift it up just a little!

The F.H.A. is an organization which strives to help young girls learn more about homemaking. The girls also find pleasure and fun in the club.

The club has increased its projects this year. As in the past years the club had its usual formal initiation, float at Homecoming, the decorating of the school at Christmas, caroling party at Christmas, bake sale, the banquet for the basketball boys, coaches, and cheerleaders, and the annual spring party. In addition the girls have started home projects in any field of home-making they wish, and at Christmas the club prepared a food basket for the welfare.

It's been a very busy and successful year for the club.

ABILITY IN G.A.A.

The High School Athletic Association sponsored by Miss Whittenberger and Miss Echart provided many athletic girls with a fun-filled schedule this year. The activities ranged from shuffle board to basketball. Also the G.A.A. sponsored two dances after home basketball games.

The girls are thinking about buying G.A.A. jackets.

Work hard and someday you will be big girls too.

The X.E.N. Science Club combines work with pleasure by taking care of its business each week during a social luncheon meeting.

A X.E.N. Science Club member has an opportunity to use the school's science facilities, since one evening is set aside each week for informal laboratory purposes.

This year the Science Club sponsored a dance to earn money. They used this money to donate some equipment to the Science Department.

The main duty of the X.E.N. Science Club was to sponsor and organize the 1963 annual Science Fair.

The Knox Chapter of Future Teachers of America is sponsored by Mr. Purtee. The purpose of the club is to encourage students to be teachers. The members of F.T.A. have the opportunity to student-teach during the year. Thus they learn the duties of a teacher and then can consider the advantages of teaching as a career.

During the last week of October several members of the F.T.A. taught the Sophomore English classes the procedures for voting. They prepared and administered a test to the students at the end of the week.

PATROL BOYS GUIDE STUDENTS

The patrol captains for this year are Terry Parker and Norman Bridegroom and the sponsor is Mr. Cira.

The student patrol is always on the alert.

The Knox Student patrol is made up of 63 seventh, eighth, and ninth graders. Their advisor is Mr. Cira. The boys stand guard on Main Street, Heaton Street and the Main Street Railroad intersections and see that the students get across the streets safely.

The patrol has two blinkers that can be found on Main Street in front of the Junior High. They also have two signs that are placed on the highway near the stop lights. The boys are on duty rain or shine.

Seventh and eighth graders interested in improving their minds through reading and in establishing inexpensive personal libraries joined this year with the freshmen who had formerly been engaged in this activity, and the result was the Junior High Book Club, sponsored by Mrs. Ellison and Mrs. Hamblin.

Activity centered around the purchase of paperback titles ranging from Miss Peach cartoons through the Army Blue Book to The Bridge of San Luis Rey. Books and ideas have been exchanged, and the normal amount of meeting and party-planning activity has rounded out the year.

Today Decides Tomorrow in Knox Sports

The tension mounting in an exciting game, voices hoarse from screaming at the top of our lungs, a seemingly endless amount of practice, and a feeling of elation when we win—these are all a part of sports that many of us have felt at some time or other. But sports also have an important part in school life for the reasons behind them. They provide a meeting place for students to get together, a diversion from everyday routine, and a chance for some students to excel in sports. Our participation in these helps us to learn sportsmanship and teamwork.

AN ALL-ROUND ATHLETE WINS THE BEN BOWEN AWARD

The Ben Bowen Award, the highest honor for athletic achievement a Knox High athlete can receive, was presented to Gerald Fletcher at last year's annual athletic banquet. This award is named for a fine Knox athlete, who gave his life for his country. The Ben Bowen Award represents clean living, sportsmanship, athletic ability, support of school activities, and good scholarship. The winner is chosen by a committee consisting of all junior and senior high coaches and principals, the superintendent of schools, and a representative of the school board.

Gerald's outstanding athletic ability aided him in gaining this coveted award. Gerald was an all-around athlete. He played varsity football for three years and was chosen Most Valuable Back his junior and senior years. In his senior year he was Co-Captain and the Most Valuable Player. He also won honors on the conference and all-area teams. Gerald played reserve basketball his sophomore year and varsity his junior and senior years. He was also outstanding in track, participating for three years.

Knox High is very proud of Gerald and wishes him success in college and the future.

Gerald wins the all-conference 440.

The Knox Varsity Basketball Team climaxed a successful season by becoming the 1963 Sectional Champs. In order to accomplish this feat, one of the hardest tourney schedules had to be met and conquered. After playing four tough games—three within 24 hours—the Redskins beat Aubbeenaubee 62-59 in a hard fought, overtime battle for the championship. The hysterical fans will long remember the superb shooting of Buckley (83 points in the whole tournament), the rebounding of Golding, the fine floor play and shooting of Wyland, the tip-ins by Berning, the clinching free throws by Hite, and the defense of Binkley. The relief work of Stuteville was also instrumental in the team's success in the tournament. Riehle, Brems, and Aquino provided relief strength.

The season was also highlighted by the winning of the N.S.C. Championship for 1962-1963.

The team was composed of 5 seniors and 5 juniors. All five seniors will be greatly missed but the five remaining juniors with the B-team boys will form the nucleus for a good team next year.

The entire team and fine coach, Mr. Beeson, and assistant coach Mr. Rinehart, are to be congratulated on the fine season and tourney play. This is the third time in four years that Knox has won the Sectional Tournament. Let this be an inspiration to all the future basketball players to keep up the good work.

The Redskins started out the season on the right foot by beating Morocco 27-0; but when they played Bremen, they could not get their offense rolling and were beaten 19-0. In their third game against Rolling Prairie, they got back on the victory trail with a 20-14 win. In the next game the gridgers continued their winning ways by beating their homecoming rivals, Jimtown, 24-6. They then encountered Walkerton and the over-confident Redskins could only manage a tie. Having five of their regular players injured, they were no match for highly-touted New Carlisle and were defeated 43-12. In the next two games the boys rose to the occasion and played the best ball of the season. They easily beat Monticello by a score of 31-6 and managed to beat highly-favored Washington-Clay 13-6. In the last game of the season they played their arch-rivals North Judson and were edged by a determined Blue Jay team 19-18.

The season was highlighted by placing fourteen members on the all-conference teams. This included Bill Stuteville, Paul Berning, Ron Buckley, and Tom Brown on the first team. Paul Berning was also selected to first team all-area. Coach Dale Snelling was chosen Coach-of-the-Year in the Northern State Conference.

Today Decides Tomorrow with the SENIORS

Finally we, the seniors, begin to realize what these twelve years of education have meant to us. The nights of cramming for the next morning's test while trying to overcome a state of lethargy, the frequent dances we attended, or coming to the partly-lit school at night for a club meeting—these are all part of the things we leave behind. But with us, we take knowledge, experience, memories of people we have grown to like, and a fond remembrance of Knox High.

AS SENIORS, WE REMEMBER OUR

The Seniors have come to the end of a long, hard journey over a rough road. Now they stand on the threshold of a new and most wonderful experience. They look to the future with hopes and expectations when they depart from K.H.S. to go many separate ways: some to meet the working world; others to serve with Uncle Sam; and 45% of them to attend institutions of higher education.

No matter where they go, they have many experiences and memories that will help them on their way. They will remember encountering their first lockers. They won't forget their class colors, blue and silver; their class flower, white carnation dipped in blue; or their class motto, "Today Decides Tomorrow." They'll relive the joy of getting their class rings and preparing their prom. But most of all they'll remember that year, 1963, when they were Seniors. As Seniors they enjoyed and participated in many activities. Sports ranked high with the Seniors, because five played varsity basketball, eleven played varsity football, many ran in track and cross country, and fifteen were in K-Club. Fifteen loyal Senior girls supported the teams through cheerblock. Twenty aided in the publication of the annual, and twenty worked on the Smoke Signals' staff. F.T.A. gave fourteen Seniors experience in teaching. In addition to these clubs Seniors participated in F.H.A., F.F.A., X.E.N. Science Club, and more. To climax their last year they worked on graduation announcements, class trip, and ordering graduation robes.

Now they leave, no longer to roam the halls of K.H.S. They leave memories, friends, and teachers to step into a modern world of space exploration. They are going to face many problems, but they hope to continue to grow, to learn, and to study. They will never forget K.H.S. and their year, 1963.

MR. and MISS KNOX HIGH SCHOOL

THOMAS MULLIGAN SANDRA STRINGFELLOW

TOP TWELVE SCHOLASTIC RATINGS

Marcus Lucas earned the highest scholastic grades for three and a half years of the high school and thus became the valedictorian of the class of 1963. Marcus devoted most of his time to studying but was also active in the Science Club. Outside of school he was a loyal member of the 4-H Club and devoted many hours to Project, involving sheep raising and conservation. Marcus intends to go to Purdue where he will major in Agriculture Science.

Marilyn Marks won salutatorian honors. In addition to being a fine student she was in many school activities in which she held some high positions: President of the Band, managing editor of the paper, queen of the annual advertising staff. She also was the DAR Good Citizen and was a member of both prom and homecoming courts. Marilyn is planning to attend Butler University where she will major in Music.

Marcus always takes an interest in science.

Marilyn is typing out an English theme.

The Senior Class is very proud of its top twelve students and the many others who also did good school work. The average of this class was very high in as much as all these twelve students had a grade index of B+ or better for 3½ semesters of work. Altogether in the senior class there were 47 students with an index of B- or higher, which is 43 percent of the class. Competition certainly made scholarship interest keener in the class.

These top twelve also disprove the idea that good students are nothing but bookworms. These twelve include the class president and treasurer; the Boy's State Representative; the DAR Good Citizen; three Homecoming queen attendants and a Prom queen attendant; 3 varsity basketball players; the co-captain of the football team; 1 varsity cross country runner; 2 varsity track men; the president and 2 other members of the K Club; 7 reporters for journalistic publication including the editor of the paper and business manager of the annual; the president of the band and 2 other members; 2 librarians including the president; the president and vice president of FHA; 4 members of the Cheerblock including the president; the president of the Shakespearean Club and 3 other members; and 7 members of FTA.

Good students know what the library is for.

IT'S EASY BEING A SENIOR . . .

Now those Freshmen won't pick on me!

Are you sure that is the punch line?

Seniors get measured for caps and gowns.

And they said typing simplifies your homework!

Got to get these finished by Friday.

... DOING HOMEWORK ...

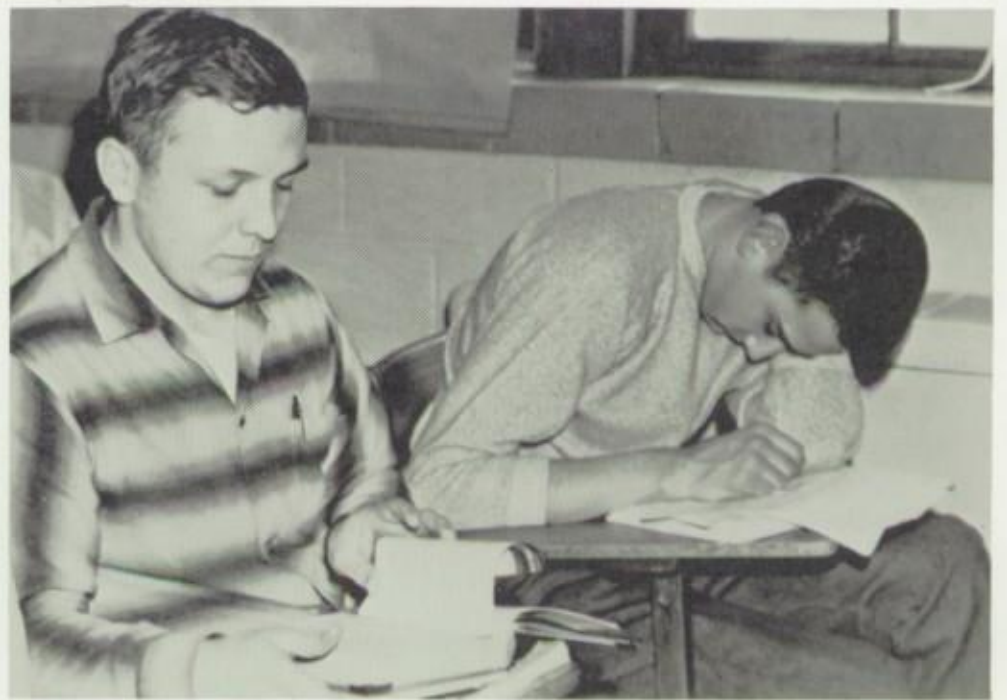

Senior practice economics.

Homework

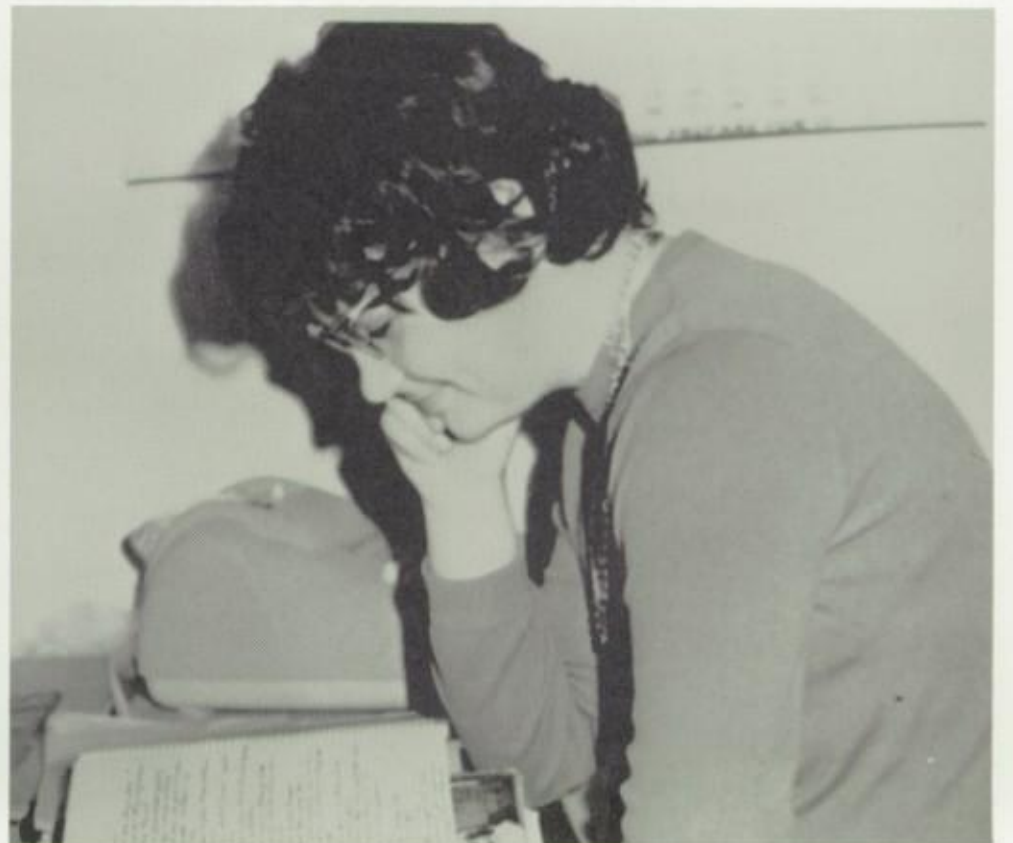

This is the way Dann burns the midnight oil.

Pat likes to be close to his work.

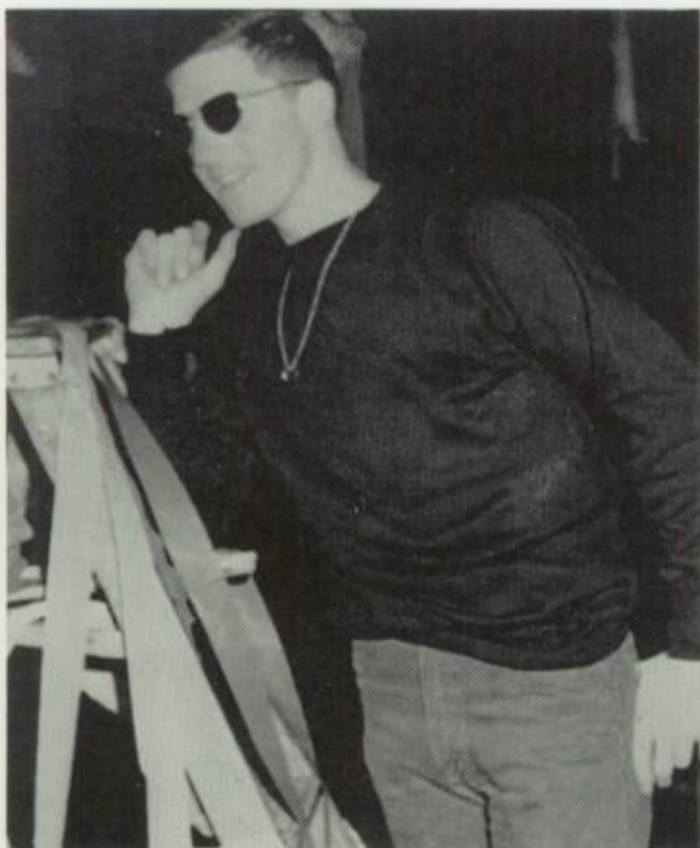

Two plus two, now how did Mr. Graham say to do that problem?

Why can't I ever read my notes?

... ENJOYING ACTIVITIES ...

All right, let's get busy and decorate for the party.

This is just an appetizer.

Seniors worked diligently on their prize winning float for Homecoming.

The Seniors conducted a mock election on November 4.

... HAVING DATES ...

Blind dates

Come on, Eleanor, we'll be late for the party.

Like, what are you doing Saturday night, Babe.

All right, I didn't want to go out with you anyway.

Tom, why does it always happen to you?

... DRIVING CARS ...

I always was courteous.

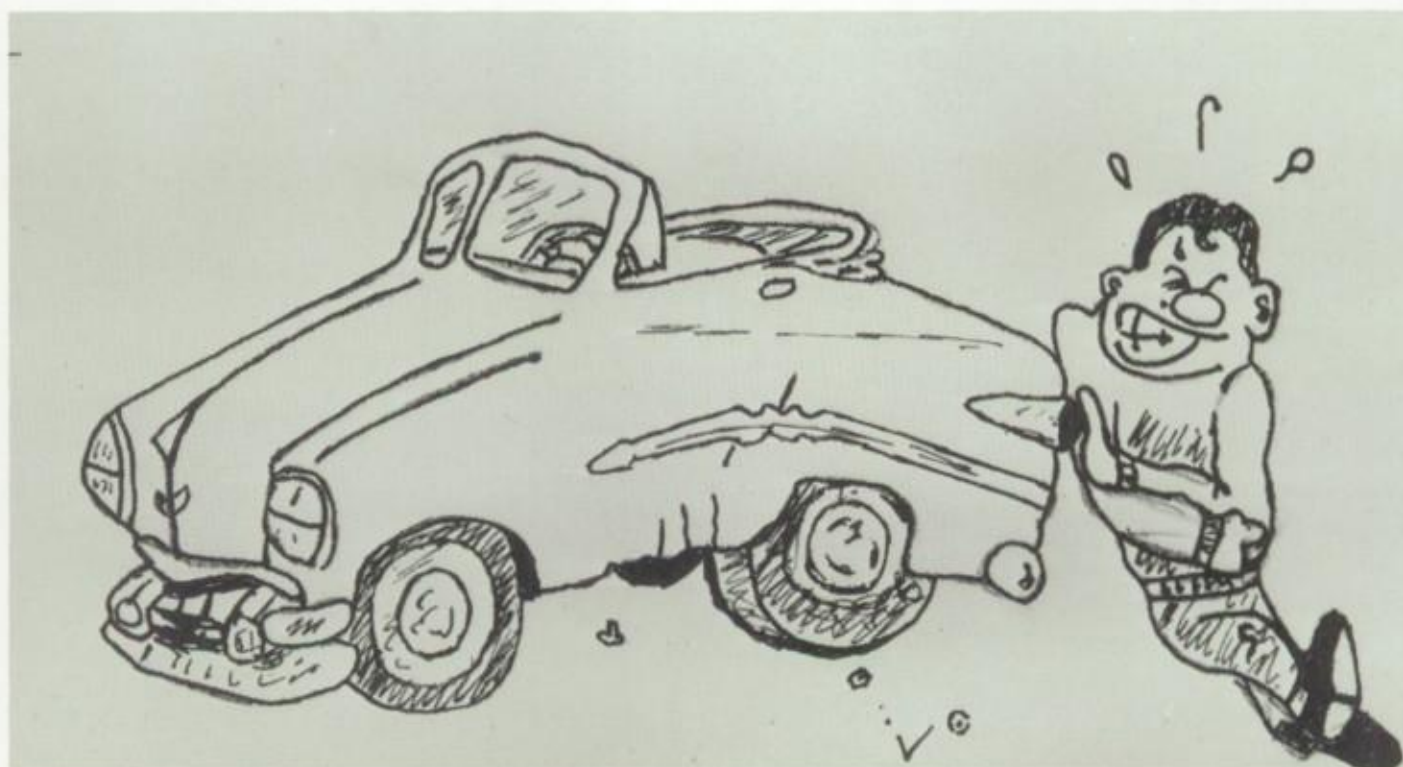

We all can't drive Cadillacs.

No, Eileen, turn to the left . . . left!

I still think it would be easier to drive it home.

GOOD-BY, KNOX HIGH

We came, but could not stay;
We saw, and will never forget;
We conquered, but have only begun.

Today Decides Tomorrow with the Underclassmen

Being an underclassman is a blending of many experiences. We'll never forget the feeling of frustration in algebra, geometry, English, or the other "baffling" subjects. We'll remember the exhilaration of taking the wheel of a car in Drivers' Ed., seeing A's on our report cards, making the varsity, performing a solo in a band contest, or receiving a class ring from that favorite person. These experiences along with many others combine to make the years of being underclassmen happy and memorable.

MANY ACTIVITIES, IS NOW JUST A MEMORY

After the election of class officers and student council members the Junior Class was ready to begin planning its fall activities. Their homecoming float and the selection of class rings were the main fall activities. The rings, which arrived early in November, were worn with great pride. The Junior-Senior Prom, eagerly anticipated, lived up to everyone's expectations. All of these activities were counseled by Mr. Snelling, Mr. Rinehart, Mrs. Milner, Mr. Miller and Mr. Purtee.

Come on, Bob, I had it first.

Our sophomore float

When the doors of K.H.S. opened last fall, the Sophomores entered, eagerly looking forward to being a part of Knox High School.

They were very determined to do their best in studies and in extra curricular activities and thus make their class one of the best in the school. The activities for the year included the decorating of the float for Homecoming and a very successful class party held in the gym.

THE JAYCEE CREED

We believe:

That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;

That the brotherhood of men transcends the sovereignty of nations;

That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;

That government should be of law rather than of men;

That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;

And that service to humanity is the best work of life.
